

QUALITY POLICY AND GOALS

Quality of education is the key to success for our graduates and a matter of honor for us

The university's quality policy is aimed at providing quality educational services by improving of the scientific and methodological, pedagogical and methodical skills of the academic staff, introducing innovative teaching technologies, strengthening of the material and technical base of the university, using of advanced information technologies, the results of fundamental and applied research, with taking into account the needs of the market, educational services and labor market.

Strategic goals:

- ◆ introduction of convenient and modern ways of obtaining higher education, flexible educational trajectories according to personal motivations, abilities and needs of those who study;
- ◆ modernization of educational standards, programs and technologies according to the needs of the labor market;
- ◆ quality management and leadership in educational and research activities, university autonomy;
- ◆ all-round attraction of investments in the educational process;
- ◆ quality policy in the field of training of higher education seekers, which is based on reliable educational measurements and analytics;
- ◆ self-regulation and self-improvement of the university's educational system.

The implementation of the Quality Policy and goals in the field of quality is achieved by solving the following tasks:

1 Improving the internal quality assurance system:

- ◆ monitoring and periodic review of educational programmes, taking into account the needs of consumers of educational services, requirements of employers and partners and the labour market;
- ◆ assessment of higher education seekers, scientific and pedagogical staff and publication of the results;
- ◆ providing advanced training for pedagogical, scientific and research staff;
- ◆ providing the availability of necessary resources for the organisation of the educational process;
- ◆ continuous development of infrastructure, improvement of the educational, methodological and material and technical base of the University, as well as social support for students and staff;
- ◆ introduction and improvement of information systems for effective management of the educational process;
- ◆ providing publicity of information;
- ◆ creation and improvement of an effective system for detecting and preventing of academic plagiarism.

2 Implementation and continuous development of the quality management system at the university:

- ◆ planning at the top management level;
- ◆ strict compliance with the requirements of internal documents of the quality management system;
- ◆ regular auditing and review of feedback and corrective of actions;
- ◆ continuous training of personnel in quality management tools and methods.

3 Improving the representative image of the university by:

- ◆ integration of the educational process with scientific and production activities, development of the university's corporate culture;
- ◆ development of fundamental and applied science and scientific schools in the direction of innovation activity;
- ◆ creation of competitive scientific and technical products and high-tech technologies;
- ◆ increasing of the volume and expanding the scope of university's research and innovation activities as a basis for attracting additional resources;
- ◆ increasing of the university's income by expanding of educational activities, including targeted staff training, technology transfer, distance learning, etc;
- ◆ providing of the quality of applicants' knowledge and students by improving the procedures of pre-university training, entrance selection and creating positive motivation of students to study;
- ◆ improving the efficiency of training of higher qualification scientific and pedagogical staff;
- ◆ integration of the educational process and scientific research and development, active partnership in the system of national and international cooperation;
- ◆ identification of talented young people, support and promotion of internships at leading foreign universities.

The administration informs about the Quality Policy and goals in the field of quality to all university personnel who implement it within their competence.

Its realisation is provided at all levels of management and may be subject to analysis and revision if necessary.

Rector of NTU «KhPI»

Yevgen SOKOL